Special Notes:

Singer Barbara Mischeri and guitarist Matteo Migliorini came up with the idea of forming the band Shining Fear in February 2004. Soon drummer Pierluigi Lazzarini, keyboardist Lorenzo Tomelleri and bassist Jacopo Ravagnani completed the band's line up. In February 2005 Shining Fear recorded their first demo, "Catch The Breathe", a gothic-oriented work in which both operatic vocals and the symphonic use of keyboards were used. Even though it was recorded in just 16 hours, the band considers it an honest work. Catch The Breathe received reviews by Metal Maniac, Rock Hard and other metal magazines. In the following years their sound evolved and became more aggressive and rough, and was influenced by different musical genres. In November 2008 Shining Fear recorded their first full-length, "ApocaLife", which includes 9 tracks noted for their heavy and aggressive sound.
